

A-Level English Literature Workshops*Teacher Questionnaire

1. What did you find useful about the teaching session/s?	The lectures were great - they were pitched to undergraduate level which is superb for our girls. The quotes and the explanation of marxism and post colonialism.
2. Would you change anything about the teaching session/s? If so, what?	It was a shame that there was not a whole group discussion of the extracts - the girls were ready to feedback about their close reading.
3. Did the session/s change the way you think about a particular topic or issue? Can you give an example?	Yes. We are now keen to teach more post colonial theory. And the links between marxism and post colonialism.
4. Did the session/s change the way your students think about a particular topic or issue? Can you give an example?	As above. They loved the post colonialism.
5. Is there any other information you would like to provide?
6. Would it be ok to contact you again in 4-12 weeks' time to return the students' postcards with short student questionnaires?	Yes!

**Please send completed questionnaires to southafricanmodernism@salford.ac.uk****

Please tick this box if you are happy for your answers to be used for public research purposes (for example in research journal articles, published on an academic blog, or used to evidence impact and reach of research in university and public reports). All quotes will be anonymised. ☒